Lyric Art Society to Give Luncheon at Plaza Dec. 28

Influx of Folk From Country to Hotel Belleclaire Engagements.

THE Lyric Art Society, Mrs. Albert Schaefer president, will give a luncheon at the Hotel Belleclaire on December 28. The society had a card party on Thursday afternoon at the Hotel Berkeley, 170 West Seventy-fourth street, for the benefit of its philanthropic fund. The hostesses were Mrs. William A. Gallagher and Mrs. B. M. Flippin. Some of those who had tables were Mrs. Burton H. Davy, Mrs. Elton T. Cowan, Mrs. Jackson B. Sells, Mrs. Newton W. Gilbert, Mrs. Charles T. Haviland, Mrs. John H. Judge, Mrs. H. B. Mack, Miss Ida Judson, Mrs. George W. Newton, Mrs. Albert Schaefer and Mrs. F. Salles. Mrs. John A. Williams was the chairman.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Edmund Taylor returned early last week from a fortnight's visit at Hot Springs, Va. They have taken an apartment at the Hotel Belleclaire. In February they will go to California to visit their daughter, Mrs. Sinclair Merchant, who lives in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Parker have returned from Brewster's, N. Y., and are also at the Hotel Belleclaire.

Mrs. Dudley Van Holland was recently appointed on the committee of public relations in connection with Mr. Will H. Hayes's office. Mrs. Van Holland is acting president of the Beethoven Society, editor of the New York Theater Club's Bulletin and is also chairman of Better Motion Pictures of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Trumbull have come from their home at Great Neck, Long Island, and have taken an apartment at the Hotel Belleclaire.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spyer Proctor have returned from a short wedding trip and are occupying an apartment at 43 Central Park West, where they will be at home after January 1. Prior to her marriage on November 3 Mrs. Proctor was Lorraine Sherwood Stahl, daughter of Mrs. Richard Stahl of Philadelphia, and a granddaughter of the late William Sherwood of the Philadelphia National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. R. McCummock Heath, who arrived in New York the first of the week from their home in Montreal, Canada, and stayed at the Hotel Belleclaire, left Wednesday to continue their motor trip to Florida. On Tuesday evening they entertained eight of their New York friends at dinner in the palm room of the Belleclaire. They will stop in Virginia for ten days, and then return to Palm Beach, where they will arrive about Christmas time. Early in the spring they will return to New York for a visit of several weeks.

In the church of the Incarnation next Saturday Miss Cornelia Lansing Smith, daughter of Mr. S. Reeves Smith of 40 West Forty-fourth street, will be married to Major Harrison W. Stuckey, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Hancock, N. J.

Invitations have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. John Lee Mahlin of 39 West Fifty-ninth street for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marian Mahlin, to Mr. Charles True Adams of Chicago. The wedding will take place December 21 in the First Presbyterian Church and will be followed by a reception at the Hotel Gotham.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Andrew Patterson, 546 West End avenue, Miss Ruth Patterson, daughter of Mr. Patterson, was married to Mr. Robert Emmett Ryerson on December 2. Miss Muriel Childs was the bride's chief attendant and Mr. Rodney Taylor served as best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Henry Everett Cobb and was followed by a reception. Mr. Ryerson and his bride have sailed for Buenos Aires to spend several years in South America.

The wedding of Miss Olive Shelby Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Shelby Edwards of 601 West 115th street, to Mr. William Webster took place on Wednesday at the Broadway Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. Walter Buchanan officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Cochran, and Mr. Evan Shelby Edwards, Jr., served as best man. Mr. Webster is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wesley Webster of Huntsville, Ala., where, after their honeymoon, he and his bride will reside.
